Background

Sherfield School is an outstanding, all-round academic, active and creative school where students thrive and flourish as they experience the excitement and enjoyment of learning.

As an independent, co-educational day and boarding school set in North Hampshire, Sherfield provides a wonderful learning environment for students from 3 months to 18 years within exquisite park and woodland surrounding a listed heritage building. It has an excellent academic record, superb facilities and a wonderful ethos.

Through a rich variety of experiences, students at Sherfield become passionate and creative problem solvers, ready to contribute to a global society. As ambitious, enterprising, inventive and innovative young minds, they develop the confidence, resilience and resourcefulness to be successful in tackling the challenges life presents to them. Through academic rigour and a supportive environment, they grow strong, self-assured and motivated by each Sherfield experience.

As a school community, Sherfield challenge, inspire and support each other as they create and imagine the students' best futures.

The school community knows and cares for each other and foster an environment where students and staff feel supported whilst building strong and ambitious futures. Together they build a powerful culture of creativity that is without boundaries. Sherfield pupils are critical thinkers who challenge ideas, pave new paths and encourage inventiveness whenever possible.

The school prides itself in their close relationship with parents and place great value on individual contact. Friendliness and willingness to listen are the starting points for effective collaboration which you will find embedded in the school's culture.

Mission & Aims

Vision

Our students create a positive impact, inspiring change and a better future.

Mission

Ad Vitam Paramus – Preparing for Life. We create a learning environment that nurtures, inspires and challenges, preparing everyone for life in a global society.'

Core Values

Respect: Valuing every voice in our community.

Kindness: Acting with empathy towards others.

Courage: Having the strength to do the right thing.

Teaching and Learning

Sherfield follows the national curriculum up to year 8. From Year 1-6 the curriculum is taught using a multidisciplinary approach to enable connections to be made between subjects.

Subjects range from traditional academic subjects, such as English, Mathematics and Science, alongside Outdoor Learning throughout and a Pathways project in Years 5 and 6.

Teaching and Learning at Sherfield is excellent and based upon our learning principles where teaching must be personalised, adaptative, relational and have a clear purpose. We strive to develop exceptional experiences for students through a framework of challenge, ownership, dialogue and engagement.

Sherfield believes that teachers have the greatest influence upon the learning and progress of students and therefore as a team they strive for the best.

Teachers provide a positive and inclusive learning environment and experience for all pupils. At Sherfield, the teachers strongly believe in the principles of preparing students for life.

Aims

Sherfield aims to teach each student using the most effective methods possible, by providing expertise and resources to teachers, parents and pupils and through regular and rigorous monitoring and evaluation of teaching and learning against student progress and achievement.

The School aims to teach every student how to learn so that they become fast, independent, confident, and self-motivated lifelong students by:

- Teaching students how to self-evaluate and set/work towards targets.
- Providing or guiding independent access to learning resources.

Sherfield aims to treat each person as a successful student by:

- Recognising effort and achievements.
- Providing appropriate feedback that always shows the next steps.

Sports and Activities

Sherfield has a long list of inclusive clubs, planned after school programmes and competitive teams that pupils can take part in, whatever their interests. Every term there are updated programmes of music, languages, sports and hobbies available to all pupils throughout the school so they can pursue a passion or extend their learning. Children can choose from an enormous list of wonderful extracurricular activities, ranging from horse riding and fencing to origami.

The Arts

Drama: The Drama Department at Sherfield is an exciting and fun place to experiment and explore ideas, theatrical styles and the possibilities of performance and production. Much of what the school does is pupil-led which results in fresh, creative, and original theatre.

Music: Music plays an important role throughout Sherfield School, whether pupils are learning as part of their day-to-day curriculum or whether they take up instruments or join in with the many choirs, bands, orchestras and groups. All pupils in the Junior-Prep and Senior-Prep take part in choir which encourages the children to have confidence in themselves from day one.

Creative: Pupils are exposed to a wide variety of media, processes and techniques starting in the Nursery and, at later stages, are given the opportunity to work on a large scale in the open plan art studio complex.

Education in Motion

Sherfield is proud to have joined Education in Motion (EiM) in September 2023.

EiM is a global education company that aspires to be a leader in pioneering education for a sustainable future. With a diverse family of premier education brands around the world, the group is known for its holistic programmes that balance wellbeing, character development and academic success.

EiM aspires to be the global leader in pioneering education for a sustainable future. Its family of mission-aligned schools is committed to create meaningful change for our world by empowering communities through innovative education. Students 'Graduate Worldwide', with the skills and experience to make a positive difference in the world.

As part of a larger network, the Sherfield community is provided an invaluable source of support. Not only does this growing network provide parents with choice as their careers take them to new places, but it also enables students and staff across the network to share best practice and provides opportunities for exchange for both students and teachers.

The EiM story began in 2003, when parents Fraser White and Karen Yung began looking for a school in Shanghai that would provide for their three young children. They wanted a challenging and ambitious education that would prepare their children for the future, moulding them into confident and well-rounded young people who could make a difference in the world. However, their search came up short. A serendipitous meeting with Graham Able, the then Master of Dulwich College in London, resulted in the idea of opening an international Dulwich College in Shanghai, the first Education in Motion school. Today, Education in Motion is a growing family of premier education brands, nurturing more than 11,000 students to 'Live Worldwide'.
